

You are Cordially Invited
To
The Art of Pasta and Image

The evening will mesh the beauty of fresh natural ingredients with spices that will have you seeing, smelling, and experiencing the world of delightful Italian greatness in food! You will see how the palette of flavor and fusion beautifully matched in food as well as personal image and branding. The palette of image will examine communications, presentation, attitude and appearance, networking and visibility to create your master piece...finding your natural beauty, confidence, and enhance your image and brand.
